St. Valentine's Day

Love

In the month of February we think of the Celebrated Holiday of St. Valentine's Day. What a great holiday and it turns our attention to the subject of love. I believe that one of the best Bible verses on love comes from John 3:16: "For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life."

Luther called John 3:16 "the heart of the Bible—the Gospel in miniature." It's so simple a child can understand it; yet it condenses the deep and marvelous truths of redemption into these few powerful words:

"God"...

...The greatest Lover

"So loved"

...The greatest degree

"The world"

...The greatest number

"That He gave"

...The greatest act

"His only begotten Son..."

...The greatest Gift

"That whosoever"...

...The greatest invitation

"Believeth"...

...The greatest simplicity

"In Him"...

...The greatest Person

"Should not perish"...

...The greatest deliverance

"But"...

...The greatest difference

"Have"...

...The greatest certainty

"Everlasting Life"...

...The greatest possession.

- Martin Luther

These few powerful words are the simplest definition of love.

The Holy Bible continues to shine it's holy light on the subject of love in I John 4:10: "This is love: not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as an atoning sacrifice for our sins."

Indeed, it is not our imperfect love to Him that comforts us, but His perfect love to us.

In response to the Love of God The Holy Bible further defines this subject in our Love for God.

1 John 5:3 says "This is love for God: to obey his commands." And 2 John 6 teaches us: "And this is love: that we walk in obedience to his commands. As you have heard from the beginning, his command is that you walk in love."

May God bless you as you grow in both of these definitions of love.

LCMS Stewardship

Table of Duties: The Forgotten Stewardship Tool

Luther's Small Catechism is a magnificent tool. Joined with a well-used copy of the Holy Scriptures and an orthodox hymnal, and the Christian is well equipped to live a life of faithfulness to the Lord and service to the neighbor. First in German and now in English and just about any language known to man, this handy masterpiece has introduced generations of people to the central doctrine of justification by grace, through faith, on account of Jesus Christ. The Six Chief Parts have proven to be a faithful framework for a clear confession of the truth of the Gospel for nearly five hundred years!

But more than a textbook, the Small Catechism also serves well as a handbook for Christian living. As a part of its treasure, there is an element that teaches an extraordinarily strong message of stewardship. That hidden treasure that needs to be rediscovered is called the Table of Duties.

The Table of Duties is really nothing more than a categorized gathering of Bible verses. These verses are set apart for "various holy orders and positions, admonishing them about their duties and responsibilities." Addressing pastors and people, government and citizens, husbands, wives, children, youth, workers and so many more, it very clearly lays out what faithful stewardship looks like. Even better, these assembled passages teach one important truth: we are stewards of one another!

The Table is much more than a "how-to" tool; it also lays out the interconnectedness that exists within the body of Christ. Pastors are described by what they are to be as stewards of the Word. 1 Timothy 3 highlights the characteristics of a faithful pastor. Even more, Titus 1 highlights the need for the pastor to be faithful for the sake of those under his care.

Those who hear the faithful preaching of the pastor are stewards of the pastor as well. 1 Corinthians 9 talks about the need for the people to support the livelihood of the pastor. Galatians 6 talks about how the hearers share in the good things that the pastor teaches. 1 Timothy 6 talks about the honor that is owed to the pastor, not because of WHO he is, but rather WHAT he is teaching! Hebrews 13 shows the impact of this stewardship on the pastor, that they perform their duties with joy. Joyful pastors and people are always going to be better stewards of the Gospel!

Outside the church this interdependent stewardship is on display as well. Romans 13 highlights the respect necessary for the governing authorities. As citizens, the faithful steward is called to pay taxes (Matthew 22), pray for their leaders (1 Timothy 2) and that they should be ready to serve in the civil realm (Titus 3), because they are in these positions by God's direction (1 Peter 2).

These steward duties are in the home too! 1 Peter 3 and Colossians 3 shape the husband steward. Ephesians 5 and 1 Peter 3 shape the wife steward. Ephesians 6 form parental stewards and child stewards.

The Table of Duties is a wonderful place for the individual steward to learn how much our stewardship is more than just a "me and Jesus thing!" In fact, it ends with these words: "Let each his lesson learn with care, and all the household well share fare." This is interdependent stewardship on clear display. As each learns stewardship in this way, the more faithful we will be as a family, congregations, communities and the church at large.

THE LUTHERAN CHURCH—MISSOURI SYNOD

CHILDREN AND FAMILIES — FEBRUARY 1–29

"Let the children come to me, and do not hinder them, for to such belongs the kingdom of God," Jesus says in Luke 18:16. God wants all His children to have faith in Him, yet sin and brokenness permeate the lives of His people. Children are orphaned, and families are ripped apart. Over the years, The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod (LCMS) has reached out to care for God's precious children through the mercy ministries of congregations, missionaries and Recognized Service Organizations (RSOs).

Remember God's love and will for children and families as you pray:

1. for all Christians, that they would help and defend the orphan and widow, the poor and lonely, the helpless and oppressed.
2. The purification of Mary and the Presentation of Our Lord; for mothers, that they might rejoice in their vocation and raise their children in the Lord.
3. for adoption and foster-care agency workers, that they would make good and right decisions concerning what is best for all involved — enabling them to find proper families and resources to
4. for all children, that they might be brought to the waters of Baptism and taught God's Word.
5. Jacob (Israel), Patriarch, thank God for Jacob, through whom came the promise of the Messiah and the 12 tribes of Israel; for fathers, that they might raise their children in the Word.
6. for men as they grow up, that they may be godly in their youth and their adult years.
7. for orphanages around the world, that they might receive
8. for orphanage workers, that they might be refreshed by Your Word and be good role models and teachers as they provide loving care to those in their charge.
9. for all orphans, that they might find Christian families who will nurture them with the love and knowledge of Christ.
10. Silas, Fellow Worker of St. Peter and St. Paul, thank God for Silas, lesser known, but essential to the work of the Kingdom; for all church workers, that all might work as God calls them to serve Him.
11. for all foster children, that they might find peace among the chaos as they wait for a proper family to be established.
12. for all who suffer from domestic violence, that the Lord would deliver them from danger and comfort them with His peace and forgiveness.
13. Aquila, Priscilla, Apollos, thank God for these examples of earnest learning and meditation in the Word of God.
14. Valentine, Martyr, pray that the love of Christ might be the love celebrated above all loves.
15. Philemon and Onesimus; for all Christian workers and those in authority, that all might serve God in their vocations.
16. Philipp Melanchthon (birth), Confessor: thank God for the Augsburg Confession and the other writings of Melanchthon that proclaim the truth of the Gospel.
17. for all caregivers, that they might raise children in the truth faith.

proper funding, food, resources and godly caregivers so that they can provide the best care possible to the children entrusted to them.

8. for orphanage workers,
that they might be refreshed by Your Word and be good role models and teachers as they provide loving care to those in their charge.

9. for all orphans,
that they might find Christian families who will nurture them with the love and knowledge of Christ.

10. Silas, Fellow Worker of
St. Peter and St. Paul, thank God for Silas, lesser known, but essential to the work of the Kingdom; for all church workers, that all might work as God calls them to serve Him.

11. for all foster children, that they might find peace among the chaos as they wait for a proper family to be established.

FEBRUARY Pray For Us Calendar

18. Martin Luther, Doctor and Confessor: thank God for Luther's proclamation of salvation by grace through faith for Christ's sake.

24. St. Matthias, Apostle: thank God for his quiet witness and those who gave their lives for the Gospel without any recognition.

19. for children and parents who are deaf, that they might know Jesus's voice and be filled with His peace.

25. for the poor, that they might find true riches in the Word of God and be blessed by the generosity of others.

20. for widows, that they might know Christ as their faithful bridegroom who will supply for their needs as they live their lives in prayer and purity.

26. for children who are missing, that the Lord would keep them from danger, restore them to their families and give them His peace and protection.

21. for the homeless, that they might find a warm and safe place to lay their head, food for their bellies, hope for the future and rest in the love of Christ.

27. for peace among siblings, that the Lord would help them love and support each other throughout their lives, instead of being divided by bickering and jealousy.

22. for the unemployed, that they might find suitable and fulfilling employment, fair wages and encouraging support.

28. for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities, that they might be treated with respect and love as beloved children of God.

23. Polycarp of Smyrna, Pastor and Martyr: thank God for those who continued the teachings of Jesus and gave their lives for the Gospel.

29. for families, that they might attend worship to hear the Word and receive the Sacraments.
